

MATHILDE WERBORG BIRKHOLM

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

My primary area of work is pharmacoepidemiology, where I leverage expertise in data and methodology for the design and communication of phase 4 trials and population assessments related to marketed pharmaceuticals.

EDUCATION

BA in Public Health Science
University of Copenhagen, Denmark
2017-2020

MSC in Public Health Science
University of Copenhagen, Denmark
2020-2023

EXPERIENCE

2023

Data and analysis consultant Hospital of North Zealand, Hillerød hospital
Providing data and analyses on hospital activity for the clinicians to use in the patient treatment. This included extracting, preprocessing and visualizing data registered in "Sundhedsplatformen".

2020-2023

Teaching assistant in Statistics and Health Economics at Public Health Science University of Copenhagen

2021-2023

Student assistant in the Data Analysis Unit at The Local Government Denmark

2021

Intern in the Section for Medicines and Global Health at The Danish Ministry of Health"

2020

Intern in the Section for Chemical Exposures at "Det Nationale Center for Arbejdsmiljø"